Established:	July 2000 in response to Public Law 106-246
Management:	Dr. Linda S. Dean, Director
Mission:	The Biometrics Management Office – as the DoD proponent for biometrics – will lead, consolidate, and coordinate the development, adoption and institutionalization of biometric technologies for combatant commands, Services and Agencies, to enhance Joint Service interoperability and warfighter operational effectiveness.
Vision:	Biometrics will be the universally empowering technology that ensures the right person with the right privileges has timely access to secure systems and facilities to support warfighter dominance.
Markets:	DoD combatant commands, services and agencies
Unique Characteristics:	The DoD's Biometrics Management Office was created by the DoD in response to a Congressional mandate to ensure the availability of biometrics technologies within the Department of Defense. The BMO is responsible for biometrics policy, planning, budget and acquisition for the DoD. The DoD's Biometrics Fusion Center (BFC) reports to the BMO and serves as the DoD's biometrics technology testing, evaluation and knowledge management center. In addition, senior representatives from across the DoD have joined to form the DoD's Biometrics Senior Coordinating Group (BSCG), which has been chartered to provide strategic guidance to the BMO, and to serve as liaison between the BMO and each of the DoD's stakeholder organizations. Together, the BMO, BFC and BSCG are building the future of identity assurance within the DoD.
